

Callenish Circle, Misled

Relying on, a conscious you never had Ignorant for the rage within

Feeling like, you're betraying yourself
The urge creeping right under your skin
This miry
deception, it crazes
you Crestfallen, you are losing your way Your blood, now it starts to boil again
But
your disguise is not gonna fall Now the time, has come to pay back It's time to show them all This miry deception, it crazes you Crestfallen, you are losing your way

Becoming way too much, way too much for you Sick of walking away

Oppressed carnal
mayhem
Criticize the truth you dread Forever living the lie Enforced
weakness misled

Reached the point of no return
Too late to turn the tide Resurrect to inflict your pain on others
Being part of the masterplan they can not hide
This miry
deception, it crazes you Crestfallen, you're losing your way Becoming way too much,
way too much for you
