

Calum Scott, No Matter What

When I was a young boy I was scared of growing up I didn't understand it but I was terrified of love Felt like I had to choose but it was outta my control
I needed to be saved, I was going crazy on my own Took me years to tell my mother
I expected the worst I gathered all the courage in the world

she said,
"I love you no matter what I just want you to be happy and always be who you are!"
She wrapped her arms around me
Said: "Don't try to be what you're not Cause I love you no matter what!"
She loves me no matter what

I got a little older wishing all my time away riding on the pavement every sunny day was grey I trusted in my friends then all my world came crashing down
I wish I never said a thing cause to them I'm a stranger now

I ran home I saw my mother I was written on my face felt like I had a heart of glass about to break

she said,
"I love you no matter what
I just want you to be happy
and always be who you are!"
She wrapped her arms around me
Said: "Don't try to be what you're not Cause I love you no matter what!"
She loves me no matter what now I'm a man and I'm so much wiser I walk the Earth with my head held higher I got the love that I need but I was still missing one special piece my father looked at me he said I love you no matter what I just want you to be happy and always be who you are he wrapped his arms around me

said: "Don't try to be what you're not Cause I love you no matter what!"
He loves me no matter what"
