

Camouflage, The Great Commandment

Some people suppress you
They patch you
And reap a disaster
Reeducation for the infants
Who demanded for an innocent instance

The great commandment
Shows the contempt
Between the world and their embarrassing pavement
Believe the scholars
Read the readings
Realize the man who says anything

The great commandment

The needers believe you
They treat you
Like survivors of a disaster
Reeducation for the infants
Who demanded for an innocent instance

The great commandment
Shows the contempt
Between the world and their embarrassing pavement
Believe the scholars
Read the readings
Realize the man who says anything

The great commandment
