

Camouflage, The Perfect Key

I was locked
And knocked to ground
You said that love can turn things 'round
You said to me:
Love's the perfect key
I tried so hard to get things done
I tried so hard to be the one
As you said to me
That love's the perfect key

I bless the ways that we're walking
Words that we're talking
And there's more than eyes can see
Beyond the wall of the things I've done
You're awaiting me
And love's the perfect key

I crossed the line
Another time
Existence build on coward lies
But you offered me
A new reality
I cried to you to hear my plea
Our souls in one tonality
You set me free
Love's the perfect key

I tore down all of these walls
But somehow
I never thought it could be enough
Now I know there is something rising high above
A perfect love...
