

Campfire Girls, Someday

i'd really like to know how it came to this hanging on the phone so you could pull me under is there something i should know? is there something that i missed?
is there something you could tell me that will help recover?
why you had to let it go i wonder where you'll go i wonder where you'll live and how you tell yourself that you can do without it 'cause i should let you know i gave all i could give and now i have to tell myself to forget about it

i'd really like to know
someday

yeah, when the world has let you down i'll be the one you think about when there's no one else around
hey, when you're old and grey i'll be the one you'll always say that you could not replace

so now you're on your own and i am writing this but you don't want to know and i can't help but wonder if i should let it go but i just can't resist the way you rock and roll and i can still remember
i'd really like to know

the one that got away
