

Cancerslug, Alter Of Sacrifice

dark star is calling black moon is filling up the endless sky and death is comming for you black robes i can hear the little babies cry on the alter of sacrifice cry on the alter of sacrifice

the drums beat warnings you feel your end in sight and death is commming for you

dont let it fade away,
dont let it fade away,yeah
dont let it fade away...
