

Candace charee, The smell of your skin

Those Dazzelin eyes, full of fire and desire.
Captured my heart with one glance
I never stood a chance
In my eyes, I can only see perfection
Even when you think your so flawed
Oh how your wrong!
And its the smell of your skin all over my body
Its the feel of your touch on my soul
Its enough to make a grown woman crazy
ooooohhh
Your the only one God made me for Your the only one i'd give my life for Obsessive love runs deep through my veins your like the drug that keeps me sane my heart will never beat the same cant you see Im dying just to keep your love next to me please set me free!
And its the smell of your skin all over my body
Its the feel of your touch on my soul
Its enough to make a grown woman crazy
ooooohhh
Your the only one God made me for Your the only one i'd give my life for Lets not wait any longer
Here I stand
Take Me
Take Me
Take me as I am!
Your the only one God made me for Your the only one i'd give my life for
