

Candice Alley, Yesterday

So far away
I get the further youre taking me
Where emptiness stays
My loneliness only takes me back to your face
When I get the feeling
Theres something in the way
Ill get the further you take me
But if my heart will ache
Im holding onto something
When all the parts that you break
Are getting under my skin
Dont you know I cant begin
When I get the feeling
Theres something in the way
Ill get the further you take me
But all my yesterdays
Are on my back and again
But dont it take more than what youre giving
Im afraid Im still living
On and on Im here
And when you say youre leaving
Follow tomorrow
Ill bring yesterday
I got to find a way
I hear the voices you know theres things
We forget to say
Like all my mistakes are falling
Back into place
When I get the feeling
Theres something in the way
Ill get the further you take me
But all my yesterdays
Are on my back and again
But dont it take more than what youre giving
Im afraid Im still living
On and on Im here
And when you say youre leaving
Follow tomorrow
Ill bring yesterday
But if my heart will ache
Im holding onto something
When all the parts that you break
Are getting under my skin
Dont you know I cant begin
When I get the feeling
Theres something in the way
Ill get the further you take me
But all my yesterdays
Are on my back and again
But dont it take more than what youre giving
On and on Im here
Follow tomorrow
