

Candlemass, Sweet Evil Sun

I always said you are the wicked one
The wretched fiend, oooh the essence
I tried to reach you, my Babylon
So magnificent, my empress

Sweet sweet evil sun oh mother of the world, you are the one
Sweet sweet evil sun the battle for your love has begun

I see your presence, the yellow crown
In the east and in the west
Oh, you burn me from your golden throne
Am I the ant that you detest?

Sweet sweet evil sun oh mother of the world, you are the one
Sweet sweet evil sun the battle for your love has begun

Ever so high, electrified
Ball of wonder so alive
You never die, never tamed
Now put inferno into my brain

Sweet sweet evil sun oh mother of the world, you are the one
Sweet sweet evil sun the battle for your love has begun
