

Candypants, Fake It

<I always heard the boys would dip in anything that had a face devotion goes only as far as they can reach below the waist but then you say,
you would never treat me that way you care about me too much to indulge without love but i say
Fake it
close your eyes and fake it
love me with a smile
kid me all the while
come on just take it

it's true there are some boys with feeling of tenderness to spare but a perfect crush loses its luster and suddenly theres no one there thats why I say that it doesn't matter any old way you can put aside those good intentions for my happiness and fake it!
kid me all the while

don't worry I don't adore you you mean nothing to me I'm only asking for a little time and conjugality so don't you say you could never see me that way you can put me on (x 3) I want you to fake it!
take it, take it, take it, take it, take it

come on come on
you can put me on
you can put me on
you can put me on
you can put me on
woohoo
you can put me on

just put me on just put me on come on just take it take it take it take it take it.....>
