

Canibus, Hollywood Solstice Freestyle

(Canibus)

Yeah, yo, Genabis revisited

The lyricist you wouldn't miss if Canibus wasn't so good at this

I testify before congress, but not yet

Hip Hop's vet may be Hip Hop's best

I'm two stories up in the Palomar Observatory

People working for me organising verses for me

My student saw me

Some of them have learned to ignore me

I write til morning, it's slightly boring

I store all the exabyte tapes that record me

You can sell the most albums, I'ma sell the last one

Right before the Armageddon happens

The population retarded, Apocalypse already started

You waiting for the news to report it

Military jargon frogmen laced the target

Disengage the rally point and bomb it

A folded note was written, given to Channel 7

Channel 7 said I was dead in Yemen

I cried when I talked to my nigga Charles Suit

For thirty seconds I hung up, it's all I could do

I dark skinned man approached the command post

Show the logo, I shook his hand when he got close

Pine Gap spinal tap, now is the time to attack

Kill the General, I'll holler in the back

Always remember, meet me in Denver,

Colorado Springs in the Vandenberg Welcome Center

I go places, remote locations

Pack flotations for giant wave formations

Dismount, Recon Scouts march south

I've got the grid location of the fallout

OK, everybody out, over here, get a body count

Sound off I'ma copy it down

Authenticate the DNA, walk through the security gate

Perfectly clean, a dirty Marine

So lyrically cold, snowflakes symmetry flow

Is hard to lip sync even when you know

Laser guided star tactic optics

Listen to the rhyme you can tell when it's not Bis

I rhyme like this in a benign climate

Nobody else knows cause nobody else tried it

Hello, to the visiting research fellow

For Whom the Bell Tolls' my flow bellows

Let me welcome you to a panoramic view

Of what we about to sell you

702 make some motherfucking noise
