

Canibus, Mic Club Intro

(Canibus)

Enter the Mic Club, this is where it all starts

MCs defend their honour at all costs

Cycle of winners, this ain't for beginners

Front and centre, state your name, rank and business

When I pass you the mic, you better burn it

Don't be squeamish, you want respect you gotta earn it

This is where we define purpose, how much heart lies beneath the surface

What's hidden behind the curtain

Besides tight verses, nothing in life is certain

Id you live as long as your words, you make life worth it

Writing rhymes give me a buzz, I do this for the love,

Welcome to the M-I-C Club
