

Cannibal Corpse, Blood Blind

See no more for the eyes no longer see
Discernible division
Internal flux carnage filled ecstasy
Desecrate all that dies

Left lifeless
In the aftermath of a bargained fate
Torn to shreds
In the genocide that was embraced
Mass mutilations to reset the human race
Predetermined to ensure a future
Blurred murders
This sanguine flood an abomination

Countless bodies that were slaughtered
Violent death the only offer
Rotting in a vile grave was the only way

Worthless beings were out numbered
Laid to waste the only answer
Giving in to savagery most of them were slain

Ruthless manner integrated
Carry out the massacre
Killing with hostility crave to decimate them all

Flawless in the ways of evil
Thriving on malignancy
Pools of blood the earth is covered
Pawns of primal doom

Subjugate the mind
Blood Blind

Mass mutilations to reset the human race
Predetermined to ensure a future
In the genocide that was embraced
