

Cannibal Corpse, Eaten From Inside

Dwelling inside was an anger an anger that grew into hatred Grinding
turning inside of me Seeking
finding the need to feed
On my soul
it now appears I've lost control Of my mind
it's now begun to tear and grind
The pain
its destination my brain
Can't hide from being eaten from inside iiiiiiiide

Originating deep within a heart that is now cold and dead Tearing its way through my organs leaving nothing but shreds Ripping tissue is torn away Severing
parts and veins in the way My insides are on the outside of me My bones
now shatter and explode
The pain
Can't hide from being eaten from inside

Left on the ground is my head waiting for the final blow Brain violently corroding the end won't come fast only slow Seeing
what's left of my body Drowning blood is surrounding me
My skull melts revealing my brain Exploding
my body's imploding
The pain
I've died
I've been eaten from inside
