

Cantatonia, Shore Leave

From London to Lisbon
And all points between Find people to lean on
And one man to please

We all need someone
We all need something
We all need

I'm lustless lifeless
The sand on my skin
It means nothing without you
That's where it begins

We all need someone
We all need something
We all need
We all need

Oh get out for your sakes
Do you want it?
And no promises are spoken
Oh take it or leave it do you like it?
And no mans heart gets broken

One day to another

I'm head over heels
One room to another
It sets the same scene

We all need someone
We all need something
We all need
We all need

Every man for himself for just a little while Every man for himself for just a short while
You could come around we could fool around
And tha'ts just the way it could be
And the way it's always been

Oh from London to Lisbon
I'm head over heels
Take it or leave it
Just come as you please

Cause we all need
We all need
Someone, somehow, somewhere!
