Cantatonia, Valerian

Never meant you no harm,
Never meant you no harm
Yeah, yeah...

Never spun you no yarns,
Never spun you no yarn
Yeah, yeah...

And she'll go yeah
Where he goes yeah

We all go where nobody knows our name

If I step out of line,
I'll step out of line
Yeah, yeah

Over land over sea
One step two to Ynys free

And she'll go yeah
Where he goes yeah

We all go where nobody knows our name

And don't cry if crying means you're sorry
Whatever the case I always felt out of place
As a matter of fact, I always felt like that around you

I'm disinclined to toe the line
Under your thumb where I've become unwanted

So pick your way down to the sea
Pick your way to the sea
Yeah, yeah

It's not the tide you gotta watch it's me
Not the tide you've got it's me
Yeah, yeah

And she'll go yeah
Where he'll go yeah

We all go where nobody knows our name

And she'll go yeah
Where he'll go yeah

We all go where nobody knows our name

Where nobody knows our name
Where nobody knows our name

Where nobody knows our name
