

Caravan, Mirror For The Day

Morning has come again
Another day seems surrounding me
Here comes that song again
With his home round it seems to be guiding me

So here with a mirror for the day
Somewhere in your mind you'll hear someone say
Get in time again you don't have, you don't have to know
My dreams are all though here I go

I like the way you're puttin' dreams in my heart
I like the wind blowing in my ears
I like my days to have sunshine and stars
And no rain to appear
You're just a smile, making life so much better
I'd give more for you than sunshine

Cause I got love for you darling, love for you now
Love for you straight from my heart
When you need something better, and you don't understand
All you've got to do is such a [...]

Don't seem to matter if it's all in your mind
I'd still believe you're right here
On Sunday morning, with a song in my heart
It seems to dispel all fear
And you'd believe nothing could be so much better
And what I'd give for you is sunshine all

And I got love for you darling, love for you now
Love for you straight from my heart
When you need something better, and you don't understand
All you've got to do is such a [...]
