

Caravan, Taken My Breath Away

Ooh ooh, ooh ooh, taking my breath away

There's a whole wide world at 4 o'clock in the morning
Didn't have no place to go
With my luck run out, standing there on the pouring
My heart was feeling like a stone
Sick and tired and all alone

When I called out loud, something stirred in the darkness
Fingers running down my spine
----- but coldness touching my face
Wasn't gonna hang around
My feet grew hard and touched the ground

Oh, so scared!
I could feel those eyes follow me everywhere
I did yell
God, I hope somebody's listening, I need a friend

Oh, I know I'll have to say
It's taking my breath away
Oh oh oh, hey hey
It's taking my breath away

Well I must admit, finally in the daylight
It never seems to be the same
And you tell your friends really wasn't such a bad fright
They say it's drink that's got your brain
You think you maybe grow insane

Oh it's there
But to prove it you would have to go back again
And you'll yell
Better pray somebody's listening, you'll need a friend

Oh, I know you'll have to say
It's taken your breath away
Oh oh oh, hey hey
It's taken your breath away, breath away

Crawling through the senses are the voices from the darkness
Calling all the forces from beyond the other side
What I know of all this I could say in just one sentence
Nothing!

He was an egomaniac before a madman and eccentric
Crazy people running scared from voices in the night
??ing what they say is right, that thief is in the bottle
Oh oh oh

When it all comes back to what you thought in the first place
Can't be wrong it must be right
When you know you're cop and got to put on a brave face
Trace your steps into the night
Searching for another fright

Oh, you'll be scared
You will feel those eyes follow you everywhere
You will yell
Better hope somebody's listening you'll need a friend

Oh, I know you'll have to say
It's taking your breath away
Oh oh oh, hey hey

It's taking your breath away

Ooh ooh, ooh ooh, taking your breath away
