

Carl Belew, I've Been Lonely Lately

You wouldn't know me now I'm somebody new Never got you off my mind I'm somebody blue
Once the life of the party now alone every night
I've been lonely lately since you walked out of sight

I've been lonely lately and tonight about nine
Will be for me the anniversary of this broken heart of mine
I walk the streets of town and tears often rise
From deep down in my heart and into my eyes
It's slowly raining now but your house isn't far
I've been lonely lately and wondering how you are
