

Carlene Carter, Lies

(R. Troy - N. Garvenites)

Well, you told me that you love
Would be good for me
But you lied, lied, lied
Told me that you'd do what you
Should for me
But you lied, lied, lied
Who do you think you're foolin'
Tellin' me those lies
What do you think you're provin'
With your lies, lies, lies
Lies, lies, lies
Lies, lies, lies ...

You tried to be sincere when you
Came to me
With your lies, lies, lies
I thought that you were true
But it's plain to see
You just keep on losin'
Baby, don't you know that
I'm wise
To all the things you been doin'
With your lies, lies, lies
Lies, lies, lies
Lies, lies, lies ...

If you find your nights to be
Lonely and the future hold nothing for you
Remember that I tried to love you
But you didn't know what was true

Someday you're gonna find
You need someone
More than lies, lies, lies
And then you'll know the difference
Between right and wrong
And you'll cry, cry, cry
Who do you think you're foolin'
Tellin' me all those lies
What do you think you're provin'
With your lies, lies, lies
Lies, lies, lies
Lies, lies, lies ...
