

Carlos Lyra, It Only Could Happen With You

It only could happen with you,
The love that I long for with you.
The moment I saw you I knew
My thousand and one dreams came true.
The gray in my sky changed to blue.
It only could happen with you.

This feeling fantastic in me,
This wonderful new world I see,
Incredible things that you do,
The mystical magic you brew,
You're really too much to be true,
And only a fool would resist
The fabulous fact you exist.

The song that is singing in me,
The beautiful rainbow I see,
To think it could happen to me!
It only could happen with you!

To think it could happen to me!
It only could happen with you!
