Carlos Santana, When I Look Into Your Eyes

Ooooh, ah ah
When I look into your eyes,
I see the ocean in the shore and I know just what I'm living for when I look into your eyes. Yeah,

When I look into your eyes,
all the love there is arrives
And everything around me dies,
when I look into your eyes

When I look into your eyes,
the sun melts deep into the sky,
And plants a seed inside my soul, and takes me up into the sky. Yeah, yeah
