

Carly Rae Jepsen, Come Over

Close my eyes
I see you, you, you, you got it
I feel butterflies
Trying hard to escape

Can't deny there's a feeling here
You caught it
Makes me wanna try
Couple nights, couple days

'Cause you do something to my patience
I can't hardly wait

Come over, come over
I'm ready to see you
Whatever you're scheming
I'm already dreaming

Come over, come over
And don't keep me waiting
Got nothing on my mind but the two of us
Come over, come over

Come over, come over

After hours
There's a space for you in heaven
Picnic on the floor
By a warm fireplace

Up to now
There were tens but you're eleven
Let me show you how
You fit right into place

'Cause you do something to my patience
I can't hardly wait

Come over, come over
I'm ready to see you
Whatever you're scheming
I'm already dreaming

Come over, come over
And don't keep me waiting
Got nothing on my mind but the two of us
Come over, come over

Come over, come over
Come over, come over

Falling for you's just fine
Baby don't waste my time
Wanna see you tonight
Oh, oh, oh, oh

Come over, come over
I'm ready to see you
Whatever you're scheming
I'm already dreaming

Come over, come over
And don't keep me waiting
Got nothing on my mind but the two of us

Come over, come over

Come over, come over
Come over, come over
