

Carly Rae Jepsen, Kamikaze

I saw you in the deep end
A shipwreck under water
And I know I shouldn't want that

I'm just here for the weekend
A wordless kind of offer
And I'm hoping that you saw that

'Cause I see you
I fall back into the feeling
Like we've just begun

Tell me, ooh
Are you tired of being alone
You're not the only one

I know it sounds fatal
I know we made fires
The ending's real clear
And it won't take us higher

Tonight I might need to come
Kamikaze crash into your way
Kamikaze, kamikaze

I love the beginning
The moonlight is calling
I know we'll go up but
We'll end up free-falling

You mind if I need to come
Kamikaze crash into your way
Kamikaze

Crash into your way, way, way

You kiss me on the cheek and
We say "hello" like it's goodbye
I should've called that

But I still feel the heat like
A secret kind of language
When your fingers fall down my back

Tell me, ooh
Are you tired of being alone
You're not the only one

I know it sounds fatal
I know we made fires
The ending's real clear
And it won't take us higher

Tonight I might need to come
Kamikaze crash into your way
Kamikaze, kamikaze

I love the beginning
The moonlight is calling
I know we'll go up but

You mind if I need to come

Kamikaze

Crash into your way, way, way

Tonight I need to Come crash into your Way, way, way

Crash into your way
Kamikaze
