

Carman, I Promise

For better, for worse
For richer, for poor
In sickness and health
I will be yours
And you'll always be here in my heart

To honor, to cherish
To care for, to say
This love will not perish
I'm yours everyday and forever
You'll be here in my heart

When the world is falling down
I will always be around
Though the tides may change
The winds may blow
I want you now to know

That I promise that I will love you
And I promise that I'll love you, too
Here's my heart
I give it away
On this our wedding day

And I promise that I will love you
And I promise that I'll love you, too
Here's my heart
I give it away
On this our wedding day
On this our wedding
