

Carola, The Pearl

If eyes can tell a story
If looks could write a tale
Then yours would keep on telling me about a love that will never fail.
The days I walked in worry
The nights I spent in tears
Now they all seem so far away
Youve made the dark clouds disappear
I was lost in a cold and lonely world
Until I found you.
You are a pearl I set out to find.
A hidden jewel of a different kind
You are more precious than gold
More valuable than diamonds
You are a treasure buried in the ground
That I wont trade what ever comes around.
Ive cried upon your shoulder
Youve been a helping hand
And I know in times of need
On you I could depend
But youre more than just a brother.
Youre more than just a friend.
Youre all I ever longed for
I know youre from heaven sent.
I was lost in a cold and weary place
Until I found you
You a the pearl...
Without your Ill be
A thousand miles from home
Like a ship searching for a shore
But I know your light will guide me
You are the pearl...
