

Carole King, Up on the roof

When this old world starts getting me down
And people are just too much for me to face
I climb way