

Carter The Unstoppable Sex Machine, 23:59 End

23:59 end of the world
Central European Time
A central European girl
Too scared to love, unprepared for love
Trips and falls down the stairs for love
Like a princess bride with an allover bruise
She tries so hard to hide with make up and shoes
Too scared to love, unprepared for love
She trips and falls down the stairs for love
23:59 end of the world
Release the tic-a-tape
Put the candles on the cake
I'll tell The Boys Brigade
To learn the songs from the hit parade
Say it loud and say it proud
All the drinks are on the house
Let the colored flags unfurl
For a central European girl
Too scared for love
23:59
(Central European Time
Central European Time
