

Cascada, Hurricane

We were laying on the whitest sand,
Oh sun above seem to fall in land.
It seems like you and me could wait forever.
Oh put the cloud strolled in and the sky got dark then it kind to see the wind picked up.
A cold wind was coming time to run now or never more.

So come out of the storm why don't you babe.
Tell me that you love me that you're love won't change.
Cause the wind is blowing out gonna turn to a hurricane.
So come into my heart why don't you babe.
Show me what you've got if you need me today.
Cause the wind is coming out gonna turn into a hurricane.

You have 5 seconds to terminate this tape?

5? 4? 3? 2? 1?

So we took heaven from the pouring rain in an old broken down forgotten place
Upon high ground where the flood wouldn't drown us.
Oh the night was long, the wind was cold.
On your shoulder at the storm above
We were waiting for morning to make or get a way

So come out of the storm why don't you babe.
Tell me that you love me.
That you're love won't change.
Cause the wind is blowing out gonna turn to a hurricane.
So come into my heart why don't you babe.
Show me what you've got if you need me today.
Cause the wind is coming out gonna blow into a hurricane.
