

Cascada, Reason

There's something in your eyes I know I can't resist.
Something in the air, I don't know why.
You were hardly there when I was on my own.
There's something about you that makes me cry.

Can I believe that your heart still beats for me?
Let me receive a sign that your my destiny.
I wanna know.

Gimme a reason for me to believe in, can't you see in my eyes?
That I need a reason, for I am still breathing. Is this the time to say goodbye?
'Cause deep in my heart I know there's a reason why I am not leaving, why im not alone.
So give me a reason for me to believe in, give me a reason.

There's something in your eyes I know I can't resist.
Something in the air, I don't know why.
Can I believe that your heart still beats for me?
Let me receive a sign that your my destiny.
I wanna know.

Give me a reason for me to believe in, can't you see it in my eyes.
Now i need a reason for I'm still breathing.
Is it time to say goodbye?
'Cause deep in my heart I know there's a reason why I am not leaving, why I'm not alone.
So give me a reason for me to believe it, give me a reason
