

Cascada, Sekret of Love

Alone in the darkness, Alone with my tears
I've lost my illusions, I'm lost in my fears
Alone in the darkness, Alone in the night
I'm waiting for you and I'm waiting for light
But when the night is gone, life will still go on
And the darkness comes again
And the bright blue sky turns to grey and I wonder why i cant forget
It's a secret of love, It's a secret of dreams
I've been lost in my fears, love is not what it seems
It's a secret that I, need you here by my side
Never can't get enough
Its a secret, a secret, a secret of love.
It's a secret of love
Alone in the darkness, I'm waiting for you
I cry for the day when my dreams will come true
Alone in the darkness, Alone I fall asleep
It's hard to forget when my love is so deep
But when the night is gone, life will still go on
And the darkness comes again
And the bright blue sky turns to grey and I wonder why i cant forget
It's a secret of love, It's a secret of dreams
I've been lost in my fears, love is not what it seems
It's a secret that I, need you here by my side
Never can't get enough
Its a secret, a secret, a secret of love.
It's a secret of love
