

Cashless, Never Break Down

You lost your girl, your money and your job.
You can't pay your bills you got trouble with the cops.
kicked out of your home now on the streets alone.
No place to stay nowhere to go,
every single day is a hard fight.
It's always a run and a hide...
Whoo oh - someday you'll be back on top...
Hey my friend, don't give up.
Even if you got trouble with the cops...
