

Cassi Thomson, Caught Up In You

Im so in love,
And I cant fight the feeling
My heart is helpless and I cant resist.
I still remember when the world stood still when,
The first time we kissed.
Youre all I see,
When I think of forever,
Me minus you just wouldnt make much sense
boy I believe,
We were meant for each other
So lets give it a chance.
Im caught up in you,
Im facing the truth,
What else can I do,
With all these emotions
Cause Im, Im falling deeper in every way
I cant sleep at night
Cause nothing feels right,
I cant deny
My heart when your near me,
My love
Grows stronger everyday
Oo, oo, yeah
Caught up in you,
Before your love,
My heart was broken,
I didnt think that it would ever mend,
And then you came
Into my life boy,
Now I dont need to pretend
Im caught up in you,
Im facing the truth,
What else can I do,
With all these emotions
Cause Im
Im falling deeper in every way.
I cant sleep at night,
Cause nothing feels right,
I cant deny
My heart when your near me,
My love
Grows stronger everyday
Every time I look into your eyes
Every time I take your hand in mine,
I know theres nothing else I need
Im caught up in you,
Im facing the truth,
What else can I do,
With all these emotions
Cause Im
Im falling deeper in every way.
I cant sleep at night,
Cause nothing feels right,
I cant deny,
My heart when youre near me my love,
Grows stronger every day.
Im caught up in you,
Im facing the truth,
What else can I do,
With all these emotions,
Cause Im
Im falling deeper in every way.
I cant sleep at night,
Cause nothing feels right,

I cant deny,
My heart when youre near me my love,
Grows stronger every day.
Caught up in you,
Caught up in you,
Caught up in you,
Caught up in you
Caught up in you,
Caught up in you
Yeah
Caught up in you,
Caught up in you,
Caught up in you,
Caught up in you
Caught up in you,
Caught up in you
Yeah
