

Cassie, Over it over all the time wasted, over all the tears over all the thoughts of even loving you over all the hopes of thinkin' your gonna even change and i know you're gonna stay the same cause everytime i put my trust in you, you find some way to break it.

you can't even look me in the eye, and tell me you're not fakin whats the point of cryin anymore, when we ain't gone make it?
i'm so over it
boy, everytime we try to make it right it always seems to turn into a fight i can't take it anymore, so i'm walkin out the door cause i'm over it, over it no more broken promises, no more lonely nights no more will i cry for you cause you can't get nothin right. i can't even look at you, don't wanna see your face ooh boy this is such a shame

don't wanna even try to talk about it don't wanna hear your side, i can deal without it spent too much time, gave too much up now im taking it back, cause i'm over it oh oh oh oh im over it
oh oh oh oh
boy, everytime we try to make it right
