Cat Stevens, (I Never Wanted) To Be A Star

I was seventeen, you were working for Matthew and Son,
The Beatles met the Queen, and I wrote I'm gonna get me a gun, yeah, yeah It was like a dream in the star machine, oh, no, izitso, izitso?
I never wanted to be a star, I never wanted to travel far
I only wanted a little bit of love
So I could put a little love in my heart
I never wanted to be la-de-da, go to parties 'avec le bourgeois'
I only wanted to sing my song well,
So I could ring a small bell in your heart
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

I was on the road, sleeping between lorry lights, oh no Stone-drunk and cold, heading into a bad night, yeah, yeah Just another bean in the star machine, hi ho, here I go, here I go

I never wanted to be a star buy my mum a Ferrari car
I only wanted to run my own race,
So I could win a small place in your heart
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

Nature found a way, it picked me up off the dark side, yeah, yeah Showed me another day, it made me sing 'I think I see the light' Not another bean in the star machine, oh no, this time I won't go I never wanted to be a star, I never wanted to travel far I only wanted a little bit of love So I could put a little love in my heart
