

Cat Stevens, Ready

I love I love Im ready to love yes
I love I love Im ready to love yeah
I love I love Im ready to ready to ready to love
I love I love Im ready to love yeah

You keep me awake with your white lilly smile don't keep me watching your charms all the while Cause as all the wise men say
Grab it if it comes your way
Im readyOh

I love I love Im ready to love yeah
ready to love
I love I love Im ready to love yeah

You make me feel things Ive never felt before Help my baby eyes and open up the door
You make me real to everyone and everyday I
I thank the Lord that you came along this way
Its no more an illusion than I can say

I love I love Im ready to love yes
I love I love Im ready to love yeah
I love I love Im ready
Ready Ready Ready to love
