

Catedral, Incomparable Love

That's the meaning of my tenderless that's the feeling of my success you're my incomparable love there's no limit of my hopes that's my silence and I confess
you're my incomparable love

Love will be carry you
And this is the way I do My heart will fly and follow you
In deepest loneliness

Love can move everything Colors in everywhere
My dream blow up when I saw you
I Know that you care me too
