

Cathedral, Reaching Happiness, touching Pain

Cathedral
Forest Of Equilibrium
Reaching Happiness, touching Pain
Dark oceans we cry
Writhing in the misery
Cast spit on the love
That lay at our feet
The intrigue of pain
We crave it's mystery
Neglect to explore
The depths to sanctity

We reach happiness
Divine in providence
Our lamented desires
Lose scent of the essence
Shunned is the prosperity
We feel the anxiety
Self inserting
The knives in our heart

Luring to degrade
With bribes of affection
Can't abide divinity
Over our imperfection
All love is broken
Sombre in devotion
The hearse of selfishness has drove it all away

Shunned is the prosperity
We feel the anxiety
Self inserting
The knives in our heart
