

Catie Curtis, Fall Away

Will you pull me up if I am slipping?
Throw down a rope if I can't hold on
I miss you so much, here's what I'm trying
I'm writing to say, don't let me fall away
Don't let me fall away
Are we building trust of just taking chances?
Enough is enough, taking each other for granted
I miss you so much, your touch is all that
I need you to say, don't let me fall away
Don't let me fall
I am not on the fence, I am on your side
But I lose confidence when I can't see your eyes
I miss you so much, come up
And stay for the night or two
And let me fall for you and let me fall
Fall, fall
