

Cave In, Penny Racer

I finally learned to spit it out and with that alone ive said too much cause anything a secret is willing to be kept that way your looking for the truths of mine they're found in every other line
many is a mood of mine Penny Racer gone to mars in flames ready as ever to survive well everyones an editor trying to get a read on me the less complete a sentance is the more i guess i tried to say your looking for the truths in mine
they're found in every other line
many is a mood of mine
we'll survive
Everythings a problem is that why everybody answers all at once?
Everythings a problem in my mind so why,so why make it any harder on me? we'll make you make it, make you make it alright Penny Racer gone to mars in flames
we'll survive
