Born On The wind

Oh, he's breaking my heart now again

Over and over I'm crying

Down, oh down in my heart

Some day you want me,

Babe, to want you

Easier said and done for you

Down, oh down in my soul

Baby, down, oh down in my heart

Born on the wind

That's where my heartache blow

Born on the wind

That's where my feelings go

Born on the wind

Oh, running in the night

Born on the wind

Hold back the tears and fight

Tossing and turning

He wants me no more

Tossing and turning before

Down, oh down goes my heart

Never there will be another you

Breaking up, oh you do

Down, oh down in my soul

Baby, down, oh down in my heart
