'Cause You Are Young

Heartache, heartache, heart was gold

All it had you instant cold

Lonely, lonely wasted years

You're a winner with bad souvenirs

You're a hero, you're a man

You're a winner, take my hand.

'Cause you are young

You will always be so strong

Hold on tight to your dreams, hold on

You are right, don't give up

(Baby, baby, baby)

'Cause you are young

You are right and you are wrong

You are a hero, next day you're done

So hold on to your dreams.

All or nothing you can give

Live your life, love to live

Oh man, oh man, feel the night

Strong enough till the morning light

You're too tough to lose this game.
