I Took It Home

When the lightning struck in the family
Kinda moved them to the cemetery now
I looked out for some information
And I can't sleep with the agitation going down
Yeah going down

There's an angel down in 2nd street
He's got a whole lot of damage, but it doesn't bleed
It beamed down for some integration
But it can't leave for the gravitation keeps it down

Into the streets and out
Back on its feet and down
Lookin at me alone
I took it home

I'm a nightmare boy of the 1st degree
Used to fall down from the highest tree
I dream a lot about the constellation
Where I came from, till the great damnation brought me down
Yeah brought me down

There's an angel down in 2nd street
Who's got a whole lot of damage, but it doesn't bleed, no
It beamed down for some integration
Now it can't leave for the gravitation keeps it down

Into the streets and out
Back on its feet and down
Lookin' at me alone
I took it home

Long for the constellation
Long for the constellation

Doodoodoodoodoodoodoodoo
Doodoodoodoodoodoodoodoo

Yeah, going down
Into the streets and out
Back on its feet and down down down down down
Flyin at me alonedown down down down
Into the streets and outdown down down down
Back on its feet and downdown down down down
Into the streets and outdown down down down
Looking at me alonedown down down down

I took it home
