

CeCe Winans, The Giver Of Life

The giver of life, still giving life
The giver of joy, still giving joy oh boy!
The giver of love, still giving love
To all those who want it, is there anybody out there who needs it
The giver of life is alive
He's alive and I know it!

The giver of songs, still giving songs
The giver of harmony is helping us to get along
The giver of peace, still giving peace
To all those who want it, to everybody out there that needs it
The giver of life, the giver of life is alive
He's alive and I know it!

Life may sometimes be so hard to bear
And sometimes it seems as if life isn't fair
Yet the beacon of light is the light that shines
The giver of life, the giver of life is mine
He is mine and I know it (So glad He's mine)

The giver of rain, still sending rain
The giver of wheat, still giving oat and grain
The giver of smiles, still giving smiles
To all those who want it, is there anybody out there who needs it?
The giver of life, the giver of life is alive
He's alive and I know it!

Whatever you need He's got it
(Whatever you need child)
Whatever you need He'll give it
(ooooo.....)

God will give you just what you need, ohohoh
Anything you ask in His name, He'll give it
(I read it in the bible)

Anything you ask in His name (He'll give you joy)
Anything you ask in His name (He'll give you a song)

Ask it!
