

Cee-Lo & Timbaland, I'll Be Around

Oh, Cee-Lo, you ready to rock wit Timbo? Yeah
Oh, let's go boy, ATL, talk to 'em Lo
How could I possibly be inconspicuous
When my flow is fuckin' ridiculous?
That's quite an accent, see I'm from the South
Where some of the most beautiful things come out my mouth
And I'm on stage just as soon as I come out the house
So I might as well give them somethin' to talk about
I bust a rap to make a blind man believe in the bogey
And if you came here to move the Cee then the bogey on
When you want me to come, holla
When you want me to come, call me
When you want me to come, I'll be around, yeah, woo, holla
When you want me to come, holla
When you want me to come, call me
When you want me to come, I'll be around, yeah
Here comes Timbaland, I'm also from the South
I like them girls with big butts and golds in their mouth
I come from the back road and a dirty house
If you leave the door open, moms'll cuss ya out
I got a big dog in the front yard
Best believe that bitch bite hard
I gotta grand daddy who think he Joe Clark
And that's how we do it round these parts, oh
When you want me to come, holla
When you want me to come, call me
When you want me to come, I'll be around, yeah
When you want me to come, holla
When you want me to come, call me
When you want me to come, I'll be around, yeah
You see, I do what they won't do and can't do but gone wish they did
When I'm done and with a smile on my face, give the trophy for Second place rite after I won, shake his hand, firm like a man
But talk to him like a son and this way I can still be a little somethin'
To everyone and with that elegance, I rock climb to reach hints from God of relevance, poise, position, and the plush of a relavance
And I'm outstandin', outspoken, which is the unequivocal evidence
It is then instant vintage as it has been, ever since, ah
When you want me to come, holla
When you want me to come, call me
When you want me to come, I'll be around, yeah, holla
When you want me to come, holla
When you want me to come, call me
When you want me to come, I'll be around, yeah, holla
When you want me to come, holla
When you want me to come, call me
When you want me to come, I'll be around, yeah, holla
When you want me to come, holla
When you want me to come, call me
When you want me to come, I'll be around, yeah
