

Celestial Season, Dancing To A Thousand Symp

Celestial Season

Solar Lovers

Dancing To A Thousand Symphonies

Remembering the melodies

In a room with glowing stars

With a thousand symphonies, right

I still recall a smile on the wall

Not forgetting the beating on the drums

Under a blood red raining sky

With the roaring of thunder, okay

Dancing to a thousand symphonies

My feet are off the ground

Dancing to a thousand symphonies

I love transcending sounds

My feet are off the ground

I love these transcending sounds
