

Celine Dion, Ain't Got Nothing Left

Anybody ever tell you, that you're not whole
Hallow shell often met without soul
Never ever felt your warmth
Because you're always cold
Only thing that makes sense is letting go
Anybody ever tell you that you've got nerve
Treating 'love' as just another word
Tired of giving love to you
But you don't deserve her
So this is one way of saying 'It's over'
'Cause I got nothin' left
I got nothin' left
I give you my best
And you treat it worthless
So I got nothin' left
Anybody ever tell you that you ain't gonna work
Trust and respect are two things you must earn
When it came to loving me
You just weren't concerned
You never gave a damn
So I guess now it's my turn
I gave you my best
And you treated it worthless
So I got nothin' left
So done with you
Maybe we're through
So done with you
I gave you my best
And you treated it worthless
So I got nothin' left
So done with you
Maybe we're through
So done with you
