If Love Is Out The Question

You bought me flowers and you sold me a line

You gave me compliments and too much wine

I've played that game ... i know all the moves

You show emotion but you hide what you feel

You play the innocent but i've watched you steal

I rest my case ... you stand accused

But i must confess i was quite impressed

You seduced me with your easy charm

And i must admit i could fall for it

But if love is out the question

There's no point to this affection

I gotta have more than ecstasy

Make me believe

I'm all you'll ever need

'cos if love is out the question

Put a little heart in your intention

I gotta have more than ecstasy

Make me believe

I'm all you'll ever need ...

You talk in circles when i need a straight line

You've got your principles and i've got mine

We all need commitment that's all i ask

(is that a crime?)

And i must confess i was impressed

I was losing to your winning ways

But i must resist there's no point to this

But if love is out the question

There's no point to this affection

I gotta have more than ecstasy

Make me believe

I'm all you'll ever need ...

'cos if love is out the question i just gotta stop

Little point to this affection i just wanna stop

It makes no sense to carry on like this

If there's nothing between us you don't know what you'll miss

No love

There's no love

Baby it's true

There's no love

But if love is out the question

There's no point to this affection

'cos if love is out the question

Put a little heart in your intention
