

Celine Dion, No Living Without Loving You

Hoo hoo hoo hoo laa

Mmm hmm

Hey hey hey yea

Hey

If you ever, ever leave me

Life will go on, stars will still be

Bright as diamonds in the sky now

Even if you say goodbye now

Ohh, hoo

The clock wouldn't stop, no

That sun still keep shinnin' down

Down the end

This world would still be spinnin' round

But baby, there would be

Just, no livin' without loving you

How would I ever survive?

Just, no livin' without loving you

Would be like livin' without being alive

Without you

(Just, no living without loving you)

Without you

Without

If you ever walk out this door

What would I have left to live for?

What would there be left to do now?

What would I be without you now?

Ohh ooo ahh, ahh

The clock wouldn't stop, no

Each day would go on just the same

Down the end

It wouldn't stop the sun and rain

But baby, there would be

Just, no living without loving you

How would I ever survive?

Just, no living without loving you

Would be like living without being alive, without you

(Just, no living without loving you)

Without you, baby

Ohh hoo hoo yea

Without you

(Just, no living without loving you)

There is no living without loving you

Oh baby in my love

(Just, no living without loving you)

Oh Just everywhere you, you oh baby

Woh, the clock wouldn't stop, no

But, baby there would be

Just, no living without loving you

How would I ever survive?

Just, no living without loving you

Would be like living without being alive, without you

(Just, no living without loving you)

Without you, hoo, baby

(Just, no living without loving you)

It would be like living without being alive, without you

(Just, no living without loving you)

Oh yes baby

There's no living, without loving you

There's no living

(Just, no living without loving you)

Oh, baby

There is no living, yea

Oh no, oh no, oh no, yea

(Just, no living without loving you)

I'm loving you
How could I ever say that?
(Just, no living without loving you)
Baby, my baby, ahh, haa
There's no living without loving you
(Just, no living without loving you)
(Baby, baby)
There's no living without loving you
(Just, no living without loving you)
(Baby, baby)
Ahh, there's no living without loving you
(Just, no living without loving you)
(Baby)
Ahh hoo hoo
There is no living without loving you
There is no living, living, living
(Just, no living without loving you)
I'm loving you
