When The Wrong One Loves You

(la la la la la)

I don't care what they think,
How they feel or what they say.
Your everything I never knew,
I always wanted be there,
I've been once so many times,
They tell me I've ignored the signs,
But nobody know you like I do,
If only one could be is you.

I can't stop can't defined,
Can't resist when the wrong one loves you right (Oohoh yeah),
I can't run I can't hide,
I can't say no when the wrong one loves you right(Oohoh yeah),
When the wrong one loves you right,

I'm getting tired of hearing that your dangerous but they won't stop,
Until I leave you won't believe,
That the thing with you won't break my heart,
So worry about the rut I had,
you can't see that your my best friend,
They're never going to take you away from me,
Theres nothing they can do,

I can't stop can't defined,
Can't resist when the wrong one loves you right (Oohoh yeah),
I can't run I can't hide,
I can't say no when the wrong one loves you right(Oohoh yeah),
When the wrong one loves you right

I cannot walk away when the feeling so strong,
I know your where I belong,
First thing I let my heart make up my mind,
That's why I never say goodbye,
I'll never say goodbye
